

Economics

How we get paid

- Contracting with local nonprofits and governments
- Finding unmet neighborhood needs (e.g. cleaning alleys, removing foxtails in the park) and finding financial support from appreciative neighbors and businesses

Beyond just money

- Bartering encouraged. Tools and places to store our equip needed
- Meaningful goals & relationships drive our work. Money matters, but less

FAIR WEST WORK LLC

Real Social Networking

Knowing neighbors, businesses and locals communities. Sharing info and creating opportunities for trust, understanding & mutually beneficial collaborations

Understanding places

Block-by-block work in the streets, sidewalks, gutters, alleys & other underloved local spaces

Resilience & reputation work

Meeting people & collaborating requires persistence & patience. Our reputation depends on long-term cumulative effects & conflict navigation

Expanding the Network

Walk/bike/drive, talk, connect, share & learn about projects directly relevant to the Fair West neighborhood

Domingo Corridor

Ripe for experimentation

For over 2 years, FWW has dedicated time, energy and money into meeting the businesses, employees, property owners & residents both in and out of the streets along Fair West's stretch of Domingo Rd NE. A corridor with lots of social and economic potential intertwined with multi-layered dysfunction and public suffering.

We've logged thousands of hours towards studying the wants and needs from a wide variety of local perspectives.

Having established a presence, reputation and a growing network of connections, we're experimenting with work to clean up trash along the corridor and in the wider neighborhood. This work creates a context for conversations and interactions deeper than the superficial results of bagging trash.

The real shit

That we do & have done

- Meet people living rough in the streets of Fair West and we get to know each other
 - With time, trust & discretion, discuss experiences, obstacles and opportunities related to community, family, work, housing & personal goals
 - Examine how non-profit services and government efforts are perceived and utilized (or not)
- Work with people who are unable to participate in the conventional job market but still need purpose, connection and money
- Track the hundreds of hours and thousands of dollars we've applied to neighborhood work
- Attend community meetings, meet local organizers and leaders & spread relevant local news
- Encourage interest, participation & optimism with neighborhood focused work
